This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) under the authority of S.C. Code Ann. §§ 58-23-10 et seq. and 58-4-10 et seq. on the Petition of the Office of Regulatory Staff (“ORS”) to revoke the Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity of Allegiance Moving Company, Inc. (“Allegiance”) for failure to maintain and file evidence of insurance. ORS’s Petition was submitted to the Commission on or about August 25, 2014. A hearing was held on November 5, 2014.

At the hearing, ORS’s Program Specialist in its Transportation Department, Carole Chauvin, testified that Allegiance was out of compliance for not having filed proof of insurance with the ORS as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 58-23-910 and S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-170 through 103-172. She testified that Allegiance received actual notice of its non-compliance by certified mail. Allegiance responded to the ORS's notice by way of a letter to the PSC requesting that the automatic suspension of the company's Certificate be lifted. Notice of the hearing was sent to Allegiance by certified mail. However, Allegiance did not appear at the hearing.

The Commission finds that Allegiance Moving Company, Inc. has remained out of compliance with the insurance requirements of S.C. Code Ann. § 58-23-910 and S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-170 through 103-172 at the time of the hearing, and that its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 671-D, issued on April 14, 2006, in Docket No. 2004-273-T, should be revoked and cancelled under the authority of S.C. Code Ann. § 58-23-320.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 671-D, held by Allegiance Moving Company, Inc., is revoked and cancelled. Allegiance's request that its suspension be lifted is denied as moot. All operating rights of this carrier are null and void.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION:

Nikiya Han, Chairman
